The front living room offers a quiet spot to unwind, while the sun-soaked family room at the back showcases beautiful views of the greenspace through massive windows and easy access to your oversized deck — ideal for relaxing or entertaining. The kitchen is designed to impress with a huge stone island, plenty of prep space, and seamless flow to the dining area, so you never miss a moment while hosting. Two additional bedrooms are generously sized and filled with natural light from large windows. The lower level is a showstopper. Thanks to the walk-out design, the basement feels open and airy, not like a basement at all.
