Walk in, drop your bag on the custom built-in desk, and you're already home. This isn't 657 square feet of compromise — it's a downtown condo that actually works. A dedicated office with the built-in already done for you. A walk-in closet off the bedroom. Custom built-ins and a full storage room that turn a one-bedroom footprint into a unit with a real place for everything. And a nearly 18-foot balcony looking out at mature trees. New flooring throughout. Central heat and AC.. In-unit laundry. Titled parking — stall B101— so you're never circling the block. A full-time concierge on site. The address does the rest: Stephen Avenue, Prince's Island Park, and 17th Ave are all a short walk away. Works for the first-time buyer who wants a real workspace. Works for the downsizer who wants lock-and-leave without giving up storage.
