From the moment you arrive, this home just feels right. Nestled against peaceful green space with no rear neighbours, this beautifully upgraded two-storey offers over 3,200 square feet of warm, welcoming living space — the kind of home where memories are made. The heart of the main floor is a thoughtfully designed kitchen with granite countertops, a large breakfast island, and high-end stainless steel appliances — perfect for family breakfasts and holiday baking alike. The living room, with its cozy fireplace, invites you to slow down and stay a while, while French doors lead to a sunny west-facing deck overlooking a fully landscaped yard. A formal dining room, 9-foot ceilings, and a handy walk-through pantry round out a main floor that works beautifully for real life. Upstairs, the primary suite feels like a gentle exhale — a spa-like 5-piece ensuite, a generous walk-in closet, and a quiet sense of sanctuary. Three additional bedrooms and a well-appointed 4-piece bathroom make this a home that grows with your family. The finished basement offers an illegal suite ideal for loved ones or guests, plus a family room with a wine fridge and a gym for staying active at home. Outside, a landscaped yard, storage shed, and triple heated garage mean everything has its place. Close to schools, Chestermere Lake, shops, and everyday amenities — this is the kind of neighbourhood where you put down roots. Don’t miss this opportunity—book your private showing today!
