Welcome to this exceptional former show home in the desirable community of Skyview Ranch, offering over 2,450 sq. ft. of beautifully designed living space, a legal basement suite, and a premium pond-backing location. This impressive two-storey home combines luxury, space, and functionality for modern family living. As you enter the home, you are welcomed by a walk-in closet and a beautiful cozy living room filled with natural light — the perfect space for entertaining guests or creating an elegant formal sitting area. Toward the back of the home, you’ll find a second oversized family room overlooking the backyard and pond, providing plenty of room for everyday living and gatherings. The spacious main floor layout also features a stylish kitchen with quartz countertops, ample cabinetry, and a large dining area. Ceiling speakers installed throughout the home add an extra touch of luxury and create the perfect atmosphere for entertaining and everyday living. Upstairs offers 4 generously sized bedrooms, including two primary bedrooms, each with its own ensuite bathroom and walk-in closet. The main primary retreat is especially impressive, featuring a spacious walk-in closet with built-in his-and-her organizers, providing both luxury and functionality. A large bonus room, three full bathrooms, and the conveniently located upstairs laundry room make this level exceptionally functional for growing families. The fully finished legal basement suite comes complete with a separate entrance and offers excellent mortgage support or income potential. Outside, enjoy the beautifully landscaped low-maintenance backyard featuring paving stones, concrete work, a covered deck, and a fire pit area — all perfectly positioned to enjoy the peaceful pond views. Additional highlights include air conditioning and an extended concrete driveway with plenty of parking space.
