This luxurious, private & meticulously detailed 3 bedroom, architectural home is located just minutes from downtown, the Scotiabank Saddledome, Calgary Stampede, the boutiques, art galleries, restaurants & cafés of Inglewood, The Confluence Historic Site & Parkland, the Brewery District & the Crossroads Market. Offering the ultimate in privacy and tranquility, Bison Path is a quaint hidden street connecting Bellevue Street with Maggie Street, one of Calgary’s oldest streets, and the home feels as though it is tucked away in the countryside, accessed by a secret country lane. Clever site positioning eliminates the need for window coverings while ensuring exceptional privacy from neighboring homes. Situated on a generous 5,294 sf triangular corner lot, the home’s orientation allows for an abundance of oversized, over-height windows on both the front & side elevations, flooding the residence with incredible natural light while capturing stunning soaring views from virtually every room. Tall sliding doors off the kitchen and dining areas lead to an east-facing terrace, creating seamless indoor-outdoor living and truly embodying the expression “bringing the outdoors in.” Top-quality materials & custom millwork are showcased throughout, while the natural wood exterior cladding blends beautifully into the naturally landscaped setting. Interior finishes include engineered oak hardwood flooring paired with luxurious wool carpeting, while the living room is anchored by a stylish natural wood-burning St&v fireplace. Currently under construction, thus offering an opportunity for customization. The 1011 sf entry level remains a blank slate ready to suit your lifestyle needs, be it a gym, games room, bedrooms, or a fully permitted legal two bedroom above-grade secondary suite subject to City inspection.
