Step into The Emerson, a porch-front home that blends standout curb appeal with the kind of layout that simply works for everyday family life. The showstopping 232 sq ft covered front porch creates the perfect indoor/outdoor extension—ideal for morning coffee, evening chats with neighbours, or a practical “landing zone” for boots and outdoor gear. Even better, the home’s park-facing location delivers unobstructed views and a streetscape that feels like an oasis right outside your front steps. Inside, the open-concept main floor is designed for connection, with a central kitchen anchoring bright living and dining spaces that flex with your lifestyle—whether it’s family movie night, homework at the table, or hosting friends. Oversized front-and-back windows flood the home with natural light all day long, creating an airy, welcoming feel from the moment you enter. The kitchen is beautifully appointed with full-height upper cabinets, two-tone cabinetry with classic white uppers and an eye catching blue island, quartz countertops, soft-close doors, classic subway tile backsplash, plus a gas line to the range for those who love to cook. Function meets convenience with a rear mudroom, a walk-in pantry, and main floor laundry—perfect for multitasking and keeping day-to-day routines running smoothly. Upstairs, the vaulted owner’s suite offers a true retreat, complete with a spacious walk-in closet and a spa-inspired 5-piece ensuite. A thoughtful winged bedroom design adds privacy for family members or guests. And the feature that truly sets this property apart: a double detached garage with a full driveway and parking pad, offering parking for up to 4 vehicles—a rare and valuable setup. Add in a gas line for the BBQ, park-side living, and a floor plan built for real life, and you’ve found a home that checks every box. Limited opportunities like this don't come along often—don't miss it.
