Welcome to this beautifully presented family home in a coveted quiet cul-de-sac, offering the perfect blend of comfort, space, and an exceptional location. Lovingly maintained by its original owner, this property backs directly onto a serene green space with a children's play park, creating an unbeatable setting for families. Step inside to a bright, welcoming main floor with thoughtful updates and loads of space for entertaining or family gatherings. Upstairs features three generous bedrooms, including a well-appointed primary suite, giving families the ideal separation between living and resting spaces. With 4 total bedrooms and 3½ baths, the home provides flexibility for guests, growing families, and a dedicated home office. Lower level has in-slab heating, central air keeps the house cool during those hot summer days. The walkout basement includes a bedroom and 4-piece bath, expanding your living options even further — perfect for a recreation room, teen hangout, fitness area, or additional living space — all with direct access to the backyard and the beautiful green space beyond. Pride of ownership is evident throughout, making this an ideal family home in one of the area's most desirable locations. Book your showing today!!
