Set on the valley floor just steps from Canmore's extensive trail system and vibrant downtown, this versatile 3,008 sqft 4+ bedroom, 2 bath home offers an exceptional combination of location, space and character. The upper level features a generous living room, dining area, kitchen and bright sunroom, along with the primary bedroom, laundry, full bathroom and an additional office/bedroom. From here, step into the impressive artist studio, a light-filled space with vaulted ceilings, skylights, expansive windows and stunning mountain views, offering excellent potential as a studio, home office or future primary retreat. The lower level provides a spacious family room, two additional bedrooms, full bathroom and plenty of storage. A double attached garage adds room for all your mountain toys while the fully fenced backyard provides a private space to relax, entertain or enjoy Canmore's mountain setting. A unique home with flexibility, natural light and an outstanding central location.
