OPEN HOUSE this SATURDAY August 29 from 2-4PM. Imagine coming home to a beautifully renovated, air-conditioned walk-out bungalow that combines the convenience of main-floor living with the space and flexibility of a fully finished walk-out lower level. Located in Crestmont, this home offers an exceptional opportunity for buyers seeking quality upgrades, versatile living space, and a west facing backyard setting. The main floor is designed for both everyday living and entertaining. A dedicated office/den provides an ideal work-from-home space, while the front flex room can serve as a formal dining room, sitting area, or additional living space. The open-concept kitchen, eating nook, and living room create a spacious central gathering area, enhanced by vaulted ceilings that provide an impressive sense of openness. The renovated kitchen features designer white cabinetry, quartz countertops, a large island, stainless steel appliances, and luxury vinyl plank flooring. It flows seamlessly into the living room, where luxury vinyl plank flooring, vaulted ceilings, and a gas fireplace create a warm and inviting space. The spacious primary suite offers a private retreat with a fully renovated ensuite featuring heated tile flooring, double sinks, a freestanding tub, and a tile and glass shower. A main-floor half bathroom and convenient laundry add to the functionality of the bungalow layout. The fully finished walk-out level provides excellent flexibility with two additional bedrooms, a full bathroom, and a large family room featuring a second gas fireplace. This level is ideal for teenagers, guests, extended family, recreation, or separate living space. Outdoor living is another highlight. The fully landscaped yard features a sunny west exposure, a deck off the main level, and a patio accessible from the walk-out level. Ideal for enjoying afternoon and evening sunshine, outdoor dining, or relaxing with family and friends. A heated double-attached garage with running water adds year-round convenience and valuable storage. With three bedrooms, 2.5 bathrooms, a main-floor office, extensive renovations, a fully finished walk-out basement, and excellent outdoor living space, this home offers the flexibility today's buyers are looking for. Crestmont offers parks, pathways, playgrounds, schools, and convenient access to major routes, shopping, services, and Calgary's northwest amenities. If you are looking for the ease of bungalow living without giving up space, this home delivers an exceptional combination of comfort, flexibility, upgrades, and long-term value.
