Welcome to family-friendly Heartland in Cochrane! Ideally located directly across from a dog park, this four-bedroom home offers the space and functionality families need. The main floor features a welcoming den, perfect for a home office or homework space, along with a large kitchen that overlooks the open-concept living and dining areas. Upstairs, four spacious bedrooms provide private space for all, and a large bonus room for gathering and unwinding. The 9' foundation and side entry offer excellent future potential for the basement, while the double attached garage adds everyday convenience. A great opportunity to own a well-designed family home in one of Cochrane's best communities.. Photos representative.
